Dear Friends, Patrons, Supporters and My Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.:

he Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter, and The Alpha Foundation of Howard County, Inc. (AFHC) are delighted to welcome you to our 47th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Breakfast. We are humbled by your support and patronage of this event to celebrate the life and legacy of our beloved fraternity brother, Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., as well as our efforts in closing the achievement gap and assisting students in developing academic and social competencies needed for college and career readiness.

The Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter was chartered on March 1, 1975, by thirty-four Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., that were committed to upholding the true meaning of brotherhood and the aims and objectives of our dear fraternity. For more than forty-three years, the chapter has subscribed to the fraternity's guiding principle of "Esprit de Fraternite", providing service and advocacy for the residents of Howard County and surrounding jurisdictions. Most notably, the chapter is highly engaged in promoting educational and civic initiatives that are designed to inform and uplift our citizenry, especially those traditionally marginalized and underserved. Some of our signature initiatives include the following:

- Project Alpha provides educational workshops and skillbuilding sessions regarding issues of responsible behavior and healthy relationships targeting teenage males.
- A Voteless People is a Hopeless People focuses on voter education and training for the Howard County community, as well as voter registration and assistance.
- The Alpha Achievers Program targets young males of color in Howard County high schools in efforts to promote character growth, leadership training, and critical thinking skills.
- The Harambee Conference annually provides workshops and resources for students regarding college and career readiness.

- The High Achievers Program targets young males of color in Howard County middle schools in efforts to build academic and socio-emotional competencies.
- The Leadership Development Institute seeks to equip high school students with vital leadership skills needed for post-secondary success.
- The Ojise Oratorical Contest encourages critical thinking and develops oratorical skills for young males of color in the Howard County Public School system.
- Scholarships and Awards are provided to deserving Howard County students as they matriculate to college, at the level of more than $10,000 annually.

Our theme for today, "A Return to Normalcy: Transforming Dark Yesterdays Into Brighter Tomorrows", conveys that the true measure of a man's greatness is not the number of servants he has, but the number of people he serves. Dr. King's legacy of selfless service is a perfect embodiment of today's theme, and inspirational reminder that as Alpha men, we must remain steadfast and true to our motto, "First of All, Servants of All, We Shall Transcend All" as we continue to lead the way in service to communities around the world.

The Brothers of the Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter and The Alpha Foundation of Howard County, Inc. are sincerely appreciative for your attendance today, and continued support of our endeavors. We ask that you please mark your calendar for our 48th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Breakfast in 2023 – we look forward to seeing you again!

Sincerely,

J. Craig Bailey President Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter

elcome to the 47th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Breakfast, our signature event to honor the life and legacy of Brother King and to highlight our quality educational programs for youth enabled by your financial support. Despite the receding endpoint of the coronavirus pandemic, we are grateful for our ability to safely gather and welcome you in person for this special occasion!

We offer our sincere condolences to those that have experienced the loss of loved ones since our last time together (January 2020). We hope that precious memories bring you peace and comfort and warm your hearts forever. We know that the past two years have been unprecedented and challenging for our nation, community, and families. We have experienced a deadly riot at the U.S. Capitol, observed an uproar over critical race theory in public education, supported our children with virtual instruction as school buildings remained closed, and endured the rapid loss of family and friends suffering from CO-VID-19 and other illnesses. Yet, the spirit of perseverance and resilience has allowed us to overcome these obstacles, and it is the same spirit that will enable us to continue moving forward.

This morning's theme, "A Return to Normalcy: Transforming Dark Yesterdays into Brighter Tomorrows," was selected because we dared to hope that things would resemble pre-pandemic normalcy by this point. However, the pandemic continues – and is even surging in some places due to the emergence of more transmissible variants. It leaves us to wonder whether we are actually living our new normalcy – forced to rely upon social distancing, face coverings, hand washing, routine testing, and vaccination boosters as part of our societal rituals.

The life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. remind us to never stop striving for a brighter tomorrow despite the intensity of the darkness. Dr. King never wavered on transforming the darkness of racism into the brighter tomorrows where equality and opportunity would become a reality for all, regardless of race, creed, or color. Dr. King remained optimistic and steadfast in his belief that a brighter day of normalcy was on the horizon. In fact, it was during his infamous March to Selma (1965) where he stated, "the only normalcy that we will settle for is the normalcy of brotherhood, the normalcy of true peace, and the normalcy of justice." Together, we will allow this legacy of Dr. King to continue guiding us forward in returning to normalcy. We move forward, strengthened in our commitment, to continue our unequivocal efforts in promoting manly deeds, scholarship, and love for all humanity, for the future of our youth and young adults – especially those who have been historically underserved and disparately impacted by the pandemic.

The Alpha Foundation of Howard County, Inc. (AFHC) was created as a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt entity to provide funding for the educational initiatives sponsored by the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc. - Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter. We seek to provide youth in Howard County with academic enrichment that further enables success in postsecondary training and education, and ultimately, creates a clear pathway for life opportunity and success. Alongside community support and partnership, the AFHC works in conjunction with the chapter to provide educational programming that assists our motivated students towards achieving ambitious goals, including leadership experience, increased academic performance, and financial assistance for higher education.

Again, thank you for attending, and your ongoing support of our educational programs is appreciated. Your generosity is a cornerstone in our efforts to ensure that Howard County students are prepared for scholastic success, entry into the workforce, community service, and leadership. We look forward to seeing you again next year!

Sincerely,

Dennis G. Kemp, Sr. *Chairman*Alpha Foundation of Howard County, Inc.

They are required to develop relationships with Howard County middle schools and annually complete 21 hours of service learning.

Harambee Conference

This annual conference provides the opportunity for student representatives of Alpha Achievers Chapters throughout Howard County to convene around a theme of uplifting themselves and the community.

■ High Achievers – Go To High School, Go To College

Prepares African American male middle school students for the academic, emotional and social transition that occurs upon entering high school through a series of extracurricular and school based activities.

■ Project Alpha

Provides education, motivation and skill building on issues of male responsibility, relationships, teen pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases for males ages 12 -15. The inaugural Project Alpha conference was conducted in 2018 at Howard Community College.

■ A Voteless People is a Hopeless People

Members of Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter volunteer at several polling stations during the election season and, at high schools, provide voter education in collaboration with the Alpha Achievers.

Leadership Development Institute

Develops a 21st century generation of African American leaders.

Greetings Friends,

Thank you to my Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, Kappa Phi Lambda Chapter for hosting the 47th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. breakfast. It is wonderful to be gathered in person again to remember and honor the transformational work of our Good Brother Dr. King with our community.

Although we have made significant progress over the past year to combat this pandemic, our work continues to ensure a brighter tomorrow for all. The challenge and controversy we face today are not insurmountable. Our Brother, Dr. King, provided us with the tools, but we must find the will, the power, and the fortitude within ourselves to keep moving forward and demonstrate our ultimate measure.

Our experiences over many generations have taught us that we can accomplish great things when we work together as a Fraternity, as a community, and as a Nation. We are sitting on the brink of enormous opportunity to emerge a stronger and a better community for all. By working together, we can make Dr. Kings dream our reality for current and future generations.

Thank you to all of my Brothers, and our greater community who inspire us every day with acts of service, graciousness, and kindness. Keep pushing, keep persevering, and keep serving. Our community thanks you for it.

Sincerely.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS SPEAKER

Bro. Pierre Thomas

CHIEF JUSTICE CORRESPONDENT - ABC NEWS

Pierre Thomas is the Chief Justice Correspondent for ABC News. He joined the network in November 2000 and reports for "World News Tonight with David Muir," "Good Morning America," "Nightline," "This Week with George Stephanopoulos" and all platforms including ABC News Radio and Digital.

From special counsel Robert Mueller's investigation targeting President Trump to the Pulse Nightclub shooting in Orlando and the Boston marathon terrorist attacks, Thomas has covered countless major news stories during his time at ABC News. Thomas reported on the death of George Floyd and the protests against racial injustice and police brutality that arose in the wake of his death.

In 2020, he conducted two exclusive interviews with Attorney General William Barr. FBI Director Chris Wray spoke to Thomas in December 2019 following the release of the DOJ watchdog report focused on the Russia investigation. In 2021, Thomas conducted the first exclusive television interview with U.S. Capitol Police officer Harry Dunn who protected the Capitol against armed insurrectionist on January 6. Dunn actions and experience, including being called the N-word 15 times during the attack was a part of the second impeachment trial of former President Donald Trump. Dunn was the first U.S. Capitol Police officer to speak publicly about the events.

Thomas has led many important investigations at ABC News including: insight into how COVID-19 spread so broadly and quickly throughout the United States, an analysis of voluntarily reported arrest data which revealed a stark racial disparity in the U.S. and an in-depth look at the opioid epidemic crisis in America.

Thomas was a key member of ABC's team of correspondents covering the terrorist attacks of September 11th, and he continues to report on all aspects of the aftermath of those attacks. The network's coverage of the 9/11 tragedy was widely recognized for its excellence, winning the prestigious Peabody and Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Awards and an Emmy Award.

Thomas also participated in a "World News Tonight with Peter Jennings" broadcast, which won the Edward R. Murrow Award for best newscast in 2005. In 2009 Thomas received an Emmy Award as part of team coverage of the inauguration of President Barack Obama and, in 2011, the Houston Association of Black Journalists honored him with its Pinnacle Award. In 2012, Thomas was named Journalist of the Year by the National Association of Black Journalists.

He was a key part of the ABC News team honored with three additional Murrow Awards: in 2012 for the network's coverage of the tragic Tucson shooting and the killing of Osama Bin Laden—and again in 2014 for ABC's coverage that included the Boston marathon terrorist attacks. He was also part of the ABC News team that received 2016 Murrow awards for Overall Excellence and Breaking News. Thomas also played a critical role in ABC News breaking coverage of the Pulse Nightclub shooting in Orlando which was honored with a 2016 Emmy Award.

In 2018 he was honored with a Murrow Award for his radio series on the Fentanyl crisis. Thomas was named the recipient of the RTDNA 2015 John F. Hogan Distinguished Service Award, which is named after the organization's founder and first president and honors contributions to journalism and freedom of the press. Past recipients include Walter Cronkite and Hugh Downs. He has been honored to serve as host of the RTDNA's First Amendment Awards, first in 2016, and then again 2019, at a time when he was helping to lead the coverage of the special counsel Robert Mueller's investigation targeting President Trump. He has been featured in the American Journalism Review and has been the focus of hour-long C-SPAN broadcast about his career and thoughts on journalism.

Thomas received an Emmy Award as part of team coverage of the inauguration of President Barack Obama and, in 2011, the Houston Association of Black Journalists honored him with its Pinnacle Award. He was recently featured in the American Journalism Review, and, in 2011, was the focus of an hour-long C-SPAN broadcast about his career and thoughts on journalism. In 2012, Thomas was named Journalist of the Year by the National Association of Black Journalists.

A former Washington Post reporter, Thomas was part of a team whose work was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize for reporting on illegal gun use in the Washington, D.C., region. While at the Post Thomas received the Pass Award from the National Council on Crime and Delinquency for his article "Beyond Grief and Fear," twice won the Mort Mintz Investigative Award and was a finalist for the Livingston Young Journalist Award.

He started his career at The Roanoke Times and World-News. He is a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University and is a member of the National Association of Black Journalists. Thomas is a past chairman of the Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press and is a member of the Gridiron Club, the nation's oldest and one of its most prestigious journalistic organizations.

We Shall Overcome*

We shall overcome, We shall overcome We shall overcome some day.

CHORUS: Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe. We shall overcome some day

We'll walk hand in hand. We'll walk hand in hand. We'll walk hand in hand some day. CHORUS: Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe. We shall overcome some day

We shall all be free. We shall all be free. We shall all be free some day.

CHORUS: Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe. We shall overcome some day.

Lift Every Voice and Sing

by James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing, till earth and heaven ring,

Ring with the harmonies of liberty;

Let our rejoicing rise, high as the list'ning skies,

Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.

Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,

Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us,

Facing the rising sun of a new day begun,

Let us march on till victory is won.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,

Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;

Thou who has by thy might, led us into the light,

Keep us forever in the path, we pray.

Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met thee,

Lest our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget thee;

Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,

True to our God, true to our native land.
